The hunter stake will be run at two fence heights but judged as one class, fences 2'3 to 2'6" and 2'9" to 3'.

The jumper stake class will be a puissance class. There will be 4 optional fences starting at 3', one of which must be jumped.

Knockdowns and refusals result in elimination, clean horses return with the puissance wall raised. The prize money will be split between the top 6 places in both classes. Check the convention website for current purse. (Cash donations for prize money will be accepted up to the start of the hunter class.)

Entries should be mailed to arrive no later than October 1, 2007 to be included in the Official Program. Post entries will be accepted up to the start of each class. Mail entries and waiver to Pam Norton, 22716 Murrell Rd, Hockley, TX 77447. There will be no refunds on stall fees. A letter from your vet is necessary for refund of class fees. No entries or stabling forms will be accepted without payment.

Handlers/Riders, Braiders, Volunteers

There are handlers and riders that will be available throughout the convention to show or present your horses. The complete list of handlers/riders that have contacted me is on the Convention web site on the horse activities page. If you need the services of any of these individuals please contact them directly. If you want to be added to the list of handlers, volunteers or braiders please contact Pam Norton.

For horses that are attending for inspection or exhibition and not showing in a class, fill out the horse information on the entry form & write in "inspection" or "exhibition" under the class column. You will also need to fill in the stabling portion of the form and sign the liability waiver. The stabling form must reach Pam Norton by October 1, 2007.

AMERICAN TRAKEHNER ASSOCIATION
RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND AGREEMENT TO HOLD HARMLESS

I, _____, a horse owner and/or participant in an equine event of the American Trakehner Association held on November 8-11, 2007 at Whitehorse Farm, 3310 Prosper Trail, Prosper, Texas, understand that horses are unpredictable by nature, that there are inherent risks in equine activities, and there are dangers and conditions that are an integral part of equine activities, including but not limited to: the propensity of an equine or livestock animal to behave in ways that may result in personal injury or death to a person on or around it; the unpredictability of an equine or livestock animal's reaction to sound, a sudden movement, or an unfamiliar object, person, or other animal; certain land conditions and hazards, including surface and subsurface conditions; a collision with another animal or an object; or the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or another, including failing to maintain control over the equine or livestock animal or not acting within the participant's ability.

In consideration of being permitted to participate and/or have my horse included in this event, I

- 1) assume the risk of,
- 2) release the American Trakehner Association, its staff, agents, officials, representatives, and sponsors ("ATA") of liability for, and
- 3) agree not to sue or prosecute any claim against the ATA for:

property damage, injury, death, or loss of any kind caused by or arising out of my participation or my horse's inclusion in this event, whether resulting from the inherent risks of an equine activity or any other cause, including negligence of the ATA, its staff, agents, officials, representatives, sponsors, event participants, and spectators (but not for their willful or wanton misconduct).

I understand and intend that this release and waiver extends beyond the protection provided by Texas law, even if protection might otherwise be forfeit under the relevant statute. I intend this release to bind me, my representatives, and any other person who could claim through me or on my behalf.

I further agree to release and hold harmless the ATA from any liability, or claim brought by any other person, caused by or arising out of my attendance or participation in this event, the inclusion of my horse, or the actions of any horse that I am riding, handling, or responsible to control.
