Class will be split into age groups of 3 & 4 year olds and 5 and over if there are 3 or more entries in both age groups. Class will be judged first at the walk, trot and canter. Older horses may be asked to do lengthings at the trot and canter. The judge may ask the age of your horse.

Mare and Broodmare classes will be judged on suitability as breeding stock. Young horse classes are judged on conformation and suitability to be performance horses. Classes will be run in format of USDF Dressage Sport Breeding Classes. (shown on the triangle) Two year olds and older to be shown in bridles, halters permitted on those horses under 2 years old.

Class offered Friday evening November 6, 2009

Class 16, Hunter Stake, fence height 2'3" to 2'6" and 2'9" to 3'. Entry fee $30 Class 17, Puissance Jumper Stake, starting fence height 3'3". Entry fee $30.

Protective headgear must be worn by anyone riding horses on the convention grounds.

The hunter stake will be run at two fence heights but judged as one class, fences 2'3 to 2'6" and 2'9" to 3'.

The jumper stake class will be a puissance class. There will be 4 optional fences starting at 3', one of which must be jumped.

Knockdowns and refusals result in elimination, clean horses return with the puissance fence raised. The prize money will be split between the top 6 places in both classes. Check the convention website for current purse. (Cash donations for prize money will be accepted up to the start of the hunter class.) Horses participating in the stake classes must be registered with or registration pending with the ATA.

Entries should be mailed to arrive no later than October 1, 2009 to be included in the Official Program. Post entries will be accepted up to the start of each class. Mail entries and waiver to Pam Norton, 22716 Murrell Rd, Hockley, TX 77447, Fax: 713-445-8074. There will be no refunds on stall fees. A letter from your vet is necessary for refund of class fees. No entries or stabling forms will be accepted without payment. Do not email credit card information, email is not secure.

For any horse attending the convention a stabling form and liability waiver must be sent to Pam Norton.
